

Positive Involvement

Positive involvement can happen everyday and in various settings. Read the locations listed below and write down any opportunities there may be to show positive involvement.

Home:

Example: If your child enjoys cooking, get the ingredients to prepare a meal together.

School:

Example: Attend the school play when your child secures a leading role.

Community:

Example: If your child likes animals, take them on a trip to the zoo.
